

2 STRUCTURES

You're American, aren't you?
No, I'm from Canada.

I'm an artist.
Are you? How interesting!

See the notes on page 96.

Practice

negative tag

1. He's French, isn't he?

No, I think he's American.

- He's French. isn't he?
- She works in a bank. doesn't she?
- He was born in Russia. wasn't he?
- They went by bus. didn't they?
- He'll arrive at two. won't he?
- They've gone to Spain. haven't they?
- He'd like to drink coffee. wouldn't he?

3. I'm an artist.

*show interest
interest question*

Are you?

- I'm an artist. Are you?
- He drives a bus. does he?
- They lived in Tibet. did they?
- She can play the trumpet. can she?
- I've seen the Pyramids. have you?
- He'd like to buy a camel. would he?
- She was born on a ship. was she?
- He's going to sell his car. is he?

2. He isn't a teacher, is he?

No, I think he's a student.

- I think she passed her test.*
- He isn't a teacher. is he?
- She doesn't live in London. does she?
- They weren't late. were they? on time
- She didn't fail her test. did she? pass
- They won't come on Friday. will they?
- He hasn't gone to the station. has he?
- They wouldn't come by taxi. would they? motorbike

4. I'm not hungry.

negative reply question

Aren't you? Why?

- I'm not hungry.
- He doesn't eat meat. doesn't he? why?
- They didn't speak. didn't they? why?
- She can't come to the party. can't she? why?
- He won't help me. won't he? why?
- I wouldn't like to be rich. wouldn't you?
- She wasn't in class today.
- I never drink coffee. don't you? why?

auxiliary verb